

Kenton County Republican Women's Club October 26th Meeting Info...

Join the KCRWC at the Oriental Wok, Ft. Mitchell on Monday, October 26th at 11:30am as we welcome
Jenean Hampton, Candidate for Lt. Governor.

Please join us to meet and hear Jenean Hampton. She was born and raised in inner city Detroit. Jenean grew up in a less than ideal financial situation, but found inspiration in NASA's space program. When the family acquired a television, Jenean watched and was inspired by space mission launches and landings. Her excitement in the program and reading helped Jenean form a positive, optimistic outlook. After high school, Jenean worked five years in the automotive industry to help pay for college and graduated from Wayne State University in 1985. Shortly after graduation she joined the U.S. Air Force as a computer systems officer, writing computer code and testing software. She was deployed to Operation Desert Storm in Saudi Arabia. While stationed in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia, Jenean, an Air Force Captain, was responsible for critical radar software used in both search and rescue missions and tracking enemy planes. After the Air Force, Jenean began a 19-year career in the corrugated packaging industry. Jenean has been married 14 years to Dr. Doyle Isaak, a retired U.S. Air Force officer. They live in Bowling Green where Jenean is active in the community. As a supporter of constitutionally limited government, Jenean serves as a strong conservative voice in Kentucky.

Registration begins at 11:30 a.m., with the meeting beginning promptly at 12 noon. The cost for lunch is $16.00. When you register at the door, you will take a card to place at your seat corresponding to your lunch choice of either:

NOVEMBER 3RD ~

GET OUT & VOTE!

Remember to vote the WHOLE ballot!!

Flo Alfred is our member of the month for October. She was born in Corbin, Ky and remembers her father talking about politics. She remembers him voting for Wendell Wellkie and Thomas E. Dewey, of course, neither won. Flo recently visited Cumberland Falls and the DuPont Lodge. It was such a special time for her since her father helped build the lodge. She went around touching the stones savoring the experience and wondering how many of the stones her father had touched. Those are memories that she will always hold dear. She is very proud of her heritage. There was not much money, but a loving family, a clean house and a garden. Flo was 12 when her family moved to Northern Kentucky. She attended John G Carlisle then to Holmes High School. She then attended business school. She worked at ATT & Cincinnati Bell until retirement in 1982.

After she retired, she had more time to get involved in politics and volunteer work. She was on the Auxiliary Board at St. Luke Hospital doing fundraising, has been involved with the Salvation Army for a long time doing fundraising for many projects and, of course, working with KCRWC. Flo has walked the 5K for the last several years to raise money for the Northern Kentucky 9/11 Memorial that was dedicated on Friday, September 11, 2015, at the Crescent Springs Community Park in Crescent Springs where she won several gold medals for completing the 5K.

She has fond memories of getting interested in politics and always wanted to stay informed. She met Clyde and Mary Middleton in the '60s. Flo still has a note Mary wrote her regarding the Children's after school programs which Flo helped raise money to fund and support.

Flo remembers the Republican Headquarters, a small storefront in Covington, and the night Gene Snyder won his seat in the House of Representatives. She has a picture with a group of Gene Snyder supporters standing in front of the headquarters after he won the election. She was active in the campaigns of Clyde Middleton and Jim Bunning. She remembers sitting next to Edna Whitus making calls for the candidates. Flo is a breast cancer survivor. She was initially diagnosed in 2001, but then again in 2009 and 2014. She was nominated as a cancer survivor and invited to walk the track at Churchill Downs for the 136th running of the Kentucky Oaks where cancer survivors are recognized.

Flo was nominated and recognized in 2001 as KCRWC's Honoree. This year she was named the "Best Dressed" woman at KCRWC's Picnic/Luau in July. She feels that she is the most blessed woman on the planet. She is so blessed to have met so many people and had the opportunity to be involved with so many wonderful groups and organizations.

A Few Words From Pam Dimmerman...

I was honored to attend the 38th Biennial Convention in Phoenix, Arizona at the JW Marriott Desert Ridge from September 10th through the 13th. Mary Lou Blount was a registered delegate at large for the state. On Friday the 11th, Mary Lou and I attended a brunch in honor of Sheriff Joe Arpaio, the sheriff who is famous for housing inmates in tent cities while they wear pink boxer shorts. It was a delight to meet him and some of his deputies who admired the man and the work he did. At 3:30, we attended an Achievement Awards Reception where our club received the Silver Award for Achievement. Immediately following the reception, we gathered in the Grand Saguaro Ballroom for the Convention Kickoff with Carly Fiorina. At 6 pm we attended the Opening Night Welcome dinner.

On Saturday, our General Session began promptly at 8:30 am and was called to order by NFRW President, Kathy Brugger. Our very own KFRW President, Barb Ellerbrook, participated in the Parade of State Federation Presidents. Arizona Secretary of State, The Honorable Michele Reagan, gave the convention welcome. After some committee reports and adoption of convention rules, program and election rules, we were presented with video remarks by Senator Marco Rubio. Campaign Volunteer Awards and Public Relations Awards were given with more committee reports presented after. At 12:30 pm, all delegates were invited to a luncheon where Janet Huckabee, former first lady of Arkansas and wife of presidential candidate, Mike Huckabee, gave the keynote address. At 2:30 pm that afternoon, I had the opportunity to attend a workshop on membership, which proved to be an excellent source of information regarding "Adding Seats to the Table". The PM General Session began at 4 pm. The Honorable Kay Granger, Congresswoman from Texas addressed the delegates on behalf of Jeb Bush, Candidate for President followed by video remarks from Dr. Ben Carson with a personal appearance by Senator Ted Cruz. Most of the business for the convention was completed on Saturday but the passing of the gavel from Kathy Brugger to our new NFRW President, Carrie Almond, was on Sunday as is customary at the end of the President's term. I was truly honored to be your delegate at the National Convention. Thank you for this great opportunity but more important, thank you for your continued support to elect conservative candidates. As we say in the American Legion Auxiliary, For God and Country!
